FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

MARGARITAVILLE BEACH RESORT NOW ENTERS PERMITTING PHASE

South Florida's first Margaritaville Beach Resort set for Hollywood Beach, has announced they have moved into the next phase of the development process. On Thursday, November 17, 2011 plans were submitted to the City of Hollywood to obtain building permits.

Plans call for a 350-room resort, with a beachside band shell, mega-pools, fun slides, Flo-Rida, Spa and other amenities. Dining options will include seven restaurants including a "Margaritaville Café". The resort will also include more than 30,000 square feet of meeting and event space for conferences and parties.

The Developer hopes to break ground in the first quarter or 2012.
